

DRAFT NUMBER THREE

Ochapowace Community Plan
DRAFT APRIL 20, 2015

Vision

We are a unified, proud, and prosperous Sovereign Nation

Mission

To serve our peoples of Ochapowace Nation through an accountable and transparent government and our own professionals, who as a team provide high quality services, a profitable economic base, protection of our inherent rights and way of life and guidance in fulfillment of our Treaties

Ochapowace Culture and Traditions

We are committed to achieving a balanced spiritual, mental, emotional and physical life. This will enable us to achieve excellent in all our culture and traditions

Measures

Employment: youth, socio-economic success, case management, productive proud citizens,

Cree language: percentage that speak the language, practicing the ceremonies, (crucial to our identity, nationhood, extremely important and re strengthen the old ways,)

Sovereign, Laws and Government:

How to measure sovereignty: counting laws, awareness approach the Membership. The elders tell us that our sovereignty was never given up, its within us, needs to be “awaken” such as our Cree language, moving towards sovereignty: enforcing the laws, examples of sovereignty and governance: Indian act -governance of first nation, sovereignty practice good governance such as bi-laws, to move in that direction, is to have your good governance in place, in order to move forward is to get the support from the membership,

Example: *right as a sovereign person, showing treaty card at Wal-Mart, no longer in use anymore,) (want to be self-sustaining but the agreement is there, the dependency of the government, agreement should be treaty based/authority)
