

Underground Supervisor

CORE INDUSTRIAL is a non-union entity which offers a full complement of industrial equipment related services, site maintenance, rentals and skilled labour. It is a part of the SECON Group of Companies. CORE Industrial takes great pride in providing a safe and rewarding work environment for our employees.

Position

You will be responsible for safely and efficiently carrying out the duties of supervisor which involves rock bolting, belt line reclamation and various other mining related tasks.

This position is based on a 7 days on and 7 days off shift schedule at 12 hours per shift; however, the candidate must be willing to work overtime.

This position will be located Rocanville, SK at the Nutrien Mine Site.

Job Duties

- Supervise five to eight person crews in all aspects of underground mine operations.
- Captures, validates and records data from shift production.
- The position requires that the person have the requisite knowledge, background, training and experience to safely oversee underground work including Rock Bolting and Belt Line Reclamation.
- Assists the crew in troubleshooting / identifying equipment or process problems and develops solutions / plans to correct.

Qualifications

- Mine Supervision experience
- Ticket to supervise underground as per current Saskatchewan Mine Regulation
- Ground Control experience required
- Mechanically inclined
- Computer skills; Microsoft Office (Outlook, Excel, Word)
- Detailed and goal oriented
- Problem-solving, time management and risk management skills are imperative
- Strong communication skills (verbal and written)
- Strong interpersonal skills and team leadership skills
- Values safety, health and a positive working environment
- Works well under pressure
- Pre-employment medical exam and drug test will be required

Total Compensation

With this opportunity, Core Industrials offers a competitive Total Compensation Package, including fair and equitable wages and a comprehensive group benefit plan including RRSP Matching.

Application Process

Please apply by sending a resume to recruiting@coreindustrial.ca.

The start date is as soon as the successful candidate is available.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those candidates with resumes who fit the needs of the company will be contacted.